

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	9
Chapter I
A short history of the emergence of modern Europe	11
Europe's development through creativity	11
Europe's development through warfare	15
Attempts to unify Europe	18
Chapter II
Modern-day Europe	22
How should Europe be conceived of and analyzed?	22
A Europe of sovereign states	23
Europe's diversity	25
Europe divided	36
Chapter III
The world around Europe	40
Old and new powers	40
Problems of post-colonial states	42
The demographic boom and its consequences	49
Negative consequences of civilizational transitions	51
Destruction of the environment and climate warming	52

 Table of Contents

Chapter IV

Europe's strengths and weaknesses	54
Europe's strengths	54
Europe's weaknesses	60

Chapter V

Challenges faced by Europe	66
Challenges stemming from sources within Europe	67
Global challenges faced by Europe	69
Division of the world outside Europe	76
The outside world's influence on Europe	77

Chapter VI

Key challenges in positing developmental scenarios	81
Europe's depopulation	81
Processes of marginalizing Europe's economic potential	82
The rise of anti-developmental and anti-system ideologies in Europe	83
Multiplicity of countries very diversified politically, economically, socially, and culturally	84
External relations: USA – Russia	85

Chapter VII

Europe: Variant scenarios of development	87
SCENARIO I – the dominance of liberal democracy, a strong EU community	87
SCENARIO II – as above, albeit with limitations	92
SCENARIO III – continuation, or “business as usual”	93
SCENARIO IV – continuation under conditions of a significant economic slowdown	94
SCENARIO V – increasing problems accrue	94

Table of Contents

In lieu of a conclusion	97
Mechanisms of the knowledge civilization: communication and visualization	101
The clash of civilizations	102
Bibliography	104